JAPAN AUTUMN LEAVES

13 Day Conducted Tour
for $7,965 per person twin share
This price includes airport taxes & levies

This is good value for a destination such as Japan, as the price covers all of the following:

- Air fares with Singapore Airlines from Sydney, Melbourne and Brisbane into Tokyo and out of Osaka.
- A 12 day tour of Japan during the spectacular autumn leaves period.
- Accommodation in mainly 3 – 3½ star hotels with private facilities.
- Nearly all meals in Japan, as stated in the itinerary.
- All transfers and transport, and entrance fees to many attractions.
- A Maiko dance performance and Sushi making class.
- Prepaid gratuities to the main tour guide and driver.
- Services of local tour guides and if there are 15 or more participants there will be an Australian tour escort.

The colourful autumn leaves draw just as many visitors to Japan in autumn as the cherry blossoms do in spring, and the viewing of autumn leaves has been a popular activity in Japan for centuries. Today people still set out all over the country to find the best spot to view the beauty of the stunning yellow, orange and red leaves. Don't miss your chance to tour Japan during this great season.

For a single room there is an extra cost of $1,640.

Happa-en means "beautiful from every angle". When visiting the Happa-en Garden you will see that the name doesn't even begin to describe this Japanese garden and teahouse. We take a stroll through tree lined paths of century old bonsai, cherry and maple trees. Take in the lush gardens and budding flowers surrounding a tranquil pond. We enjoy an included lunch at a restaurant.

Afterwards we visit Mori Tower, where we will go up to the observation deck for a bird's eye view of Tokyo. On the way back to the hotel we have some free time for shopping in the Ginza shopping area.

03.11.24 Tokyo

(B/D)

This morning is at leisure. At 2pm we commence touring with a visit to Shinjuku Goyen National Garden, which is one of Tokyo's largest and most popular parks. Shinjuku Goen originated during the Edo period (between 1603-1868) as a feudal lord's Tokyo residence. Later it was converted into a botanical garden before being transferred to the Imperial Family in 1903. The park was almost completely destroyed during World War II, but was eventually rebuilt and reopened in 1949 as a public park.

Following this we have some time in the Kabukicho District of the city. The area has lots of entertainment, food and shops. The area is how you might imagine Tokyo to be, with lights and sounds everywhere, an overstimulation of the senses. We then have an included dinner at a local restaurant. Afterwards we can see Tokyo by night while visiting the Metropolitan Government Building Observatory.

Accommodation: Tokyo Prince Hotel or similar

Of the 60 local government offices that were once spread throughout Japan, this is the only one still in existence. The town village still stands on the east side of the Miyagawa River, flowing through Takayama and in the middle of it is Sanmachi (Old Town), where Edo period houses remain. This district was designated as an area of important traditional buildings by the Japanese Government. We also visit a Japanese sake brewery for a sake tasting. Lunch and dinner today are included.

This village is well known for houses constructed in the architectural style known as gassho-zukuri (prayer-hands construction) style, which is characterised by a thatched and steeply slanting roof resembling two hands joined in prayer. The design is exceptionally strong which allows the houses to withstand and shed the weight of the region's heavy snowfalls in winter. We also visit the lookout, which looks over the nearby village. Afterwards we proceed to Kanazawa for an overnight stay. Whilst in Kanazawa we visit the former Samurai residential area. We also visit the Higashi Chaya District, which has many tea houses where Geisha perform. Lunch today is included and dinner is at a local restaurant within walking distance of the hotel.

The ratings, from 1, being the easiest, to 5 the most strenuous, will give you a good idea of what is reasonably required for you to be able to participate on each tour. Most tours require a moderate to good level of fitness, however there are others that are quite challenging.
